General Information

1. Orders. Acceptance of orders is subject to credit approval and contingencies such as fire, water, strikes, theft, vandalism, acts of God, and other causes beyond the printer's control. Cancelled orders require compensation for incurred costs and related obligations.
2. Experimental Work. Experimental or preliminary work performed at customer's request will be charged to the customer at the printer's current rates. This work cannot be used without the printer's written consent.
3. Creative Work. Sketches, copy, dummies and all other creative work developed or furnished by the printer are the printer's exclusive property. The printer must give written approval for all use of this work and for any derivation of ideas from it.
4. Accuracy of Specifications. Quotations are based on the accuracy of the specifications provided. The printer can re-quote a job at time of submission if copy or other input materials don't conform to the information on which the original quotation was based.
5. Electronic Manuscript or Image. It is the customer's responsibility to maintain a copy of the original file. The printer is not responsible for accidental damage to media supplied by the customer or for the accuracy of furnished input or final output. Until digital input can be evaluated by the printer, no claims or promises are made about the printer's ability to work with jobs submitted in digital format, and no liability is assumed for problems that may arise. Any additional translating, editing, or programming needed to utilize customer-supplied files will be charged at prevailing rates.
6. Alterations/Corrections. Customer alterations include all work performed in addition to the original specifications. All such work will be charged at the printer's current rates.
7. Press Proofs. Press proofs will not be furnished unless they have been required in writing in the printer's quotation. A press sheet can be submitted for the customer's approval as long as the customer is present at the press during make-ready. Any press time lost or alterations/corrections made because of the customer's delay or change of mind will be charged at the printer's current rates.
8. Color Proofing. Because of differences in equipment, substrates, inks, and other conditions between color proofing and production pressroom operations, a reasonable variation in color between color proofs and the completed job is to be expected. When variation of this kind occurs, it will be considered acceptable performance.
9. Overruns or Under runs. Overruns or under runs will not exceed 5 percent of the quantity ordered unless specifically stated by the customer.
10. Delivery. Unless otherwise specified, the price quoted is for a single shipment, without storage, F.O.B. printer's platform. Proposals are based on continuous and uninterrupted delivery of the complete order. If the specifications state otherwise, the printer will charge accordingly at current rates. Charges for delivery of materials and supplies from the customer to the printer, or from the customer's supplier to the printer, are not included in quotations unless specified. Title for finished work passes to the customer upon delivery to the carrier at shipping point; or upon mailing of invoices for the finished work or segments, whichever occurs first.
11. Production Schedules. Production schedules will be established and followed by both the customer and the printer. In the event that production schedules are not adhered to by the customer, delivery dates will be subject to renegotiation. There will be no liability or penalty for delays due to state of war, riot, civic disorder, fire, strikes, accidents, action of government or civil authority, acts of God, or other causes beyond control of the printer. In such cases, schedules will be extended by an amount of time equal to delay incurred.
12. The printer's liability will be limited to the quoted selling price of defective goods without additional liability for special or consequential damages. As security for payment of any sum due under the terms of an agreement, the printer has the right to hold and place a lien on all customer property in the printer's possession. This right applies even if credit has been extended, notes have been accepted, trade acceptances have been made, or payment has been guaranteed. If payment is not made, the customer is liable for all collection costs incurred.
